

Service

Service API can simplify TV's certain function usages and supports video / image player, Smart Remote and USB.

Service API consists of Class that a function for TV control are defined and Class that are used to control Interactive Remote. Class related to TV Control defines methods to check if an app was initially installed and Setting, Channel Control, Screen Saver and Volume control.

sf.service

This class defines the functions for the TV control.

sf.service.SmartRemote

Used for controlling the interactive remote.