Planning and Designing Applications

Published 2014-10-28 |

> Planning and Designing Applications

The first step in creating a Samsung SmartTV application is planning and designing the application and application UI using the design tools of your choice.

When planning and designing your application, consider the following:

Needs of users in the Smart TV environment

Features and capabilities of the Samsung Smart TV APIs:

JavaScript

UI

Once you have finished the application plan and design, you are ready to implement your application code.